DICTIONARY

Unabridged Version

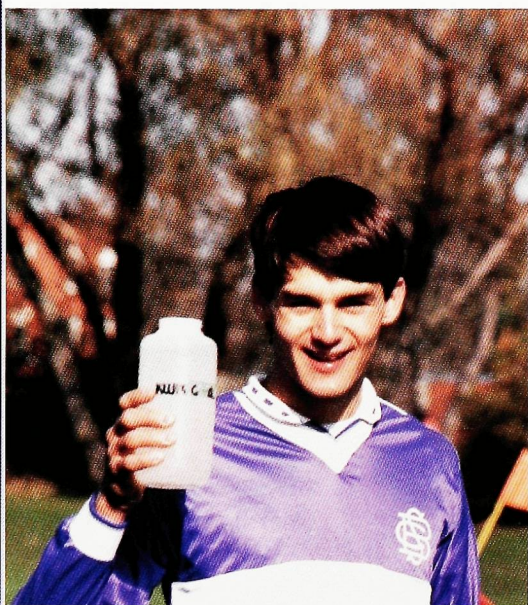

THE MAGAZINE OF BISHOP'S COLLEGE SCHOOL

VOLUME 111

LENNOXVILLE, QUEBEC

CANADA. J1M 1Z8

There are over 40,000 words in the Oxford dictionary and I would like to focus in on only one four letter word, a word used so often that we forget its true meaning. The word is L-O-V-E. Now it may seem strange to the reader that the Headmaster would pick this word. Let me tell you why. Firstly, I am writing this a few days before Valentine's Day and, naturally, that word has a pervasive presence around here. Secondly, the word "love" has particular beauty behind it which certainly captures the true experiential essence of life every month at BCS. I am no authority on this topic but it seems to me that "love" is:

1. The capacity to trust. The mutual trust between teachers and students allows BCSers to take risks in many endeavours such as singing a solo in Chapel or rappelling down the School House wall.
2. The ability to share and care. As a school family we have shared our laughter and sorrow countless times in both victory and defeat - on the playing fields, in the Chapel and in the Houses. We have deeply cared for members of our own BCS family and those outside our school.
3. The potential to see good in everyone. I have had the professional and personal pleasure of joining a dedicated and caring group of teachers who see every student as special. They have taken to their hearts the Mission Statement's aim, "to ignite and develop the varied potentials of all our students."
4. The capacity to understand. BCS is a pluralistic society that has allowed us to recognize and appreciate many cultures and lifestyles. I have seen how students open themselves to others, the joy of friendships and the unique way students and teachers depend on one another.
5. The ability to make people feel welcome. The unique warm "BCS hug" that Deanna and I received during the Thanksgiving Chapel Service will forever be etched in our memory banks. That symbolic gesture typified the constant welcome our family has received by the entire BCS community. We "love" it!

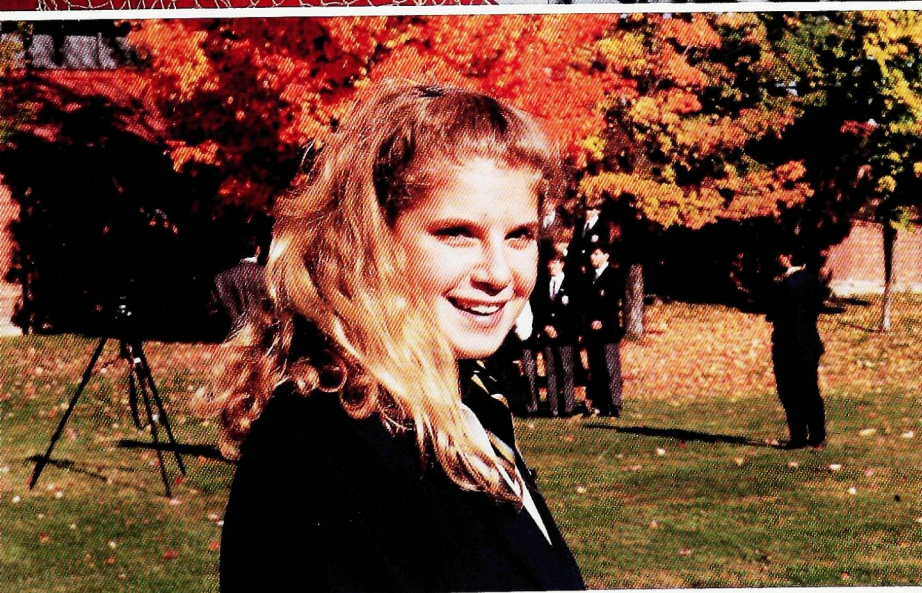

I would "love" to keep writing, but I think you would "love" to get to the rest of this Yearbook.

GLASS HOUSE

Two houseparents Mr. and Mrs. Brass,
Kept 42 girls in the house of glass.
It was a memorable year for all of us,
Always talking about what the other does.
Of course there were always those times of dismay,
Especially when our microwave was taken away.
The Saturday nights in the downstairs common room,
When Sunday came we needed a vacuum, and broom.
And then there was always those what if's . . .

WHAT IF . . .

- Caitlin woke up at wake-up?
- Lisa Fulford went out with a guy for more than 24 hours?
- Valeria, Camilla and Astrid spoke english?
- Joanna Elkeslassy actually talked to Tony?

- Catherine and Joya stopped watching T.V.?
- The milk machine wasn't broken?
- Juliet and Sara decided to do each other's duty?
- Julie stopped saying "Allright!"

But there's one thing we don't have to say "what if" and that's that we've a great family here at Glass House.

Grier South House

A typical weekend at Grier South:

As the check-in starts at 8 o'clock, we discover that Andre Blair, and Luc are camping in Glass again. Andy is tutoring the whole 7th form in the small apartment. While Peter Chang is tutoring Mr. MacDonald in math, Michael starts singing to himself. Boomer begins his regular late night talking in his sleep. Sebastien, with his "Moose" slippers, runs out of the common room and crashes into the door. John plays Dungeons and Dragons with Dominique. Abdallah, the crazy ping-pong player, takes on everyone in the house except his house captain, Steve, Ha! Eric T. is dreaming about being the future owner of a Harley Davidson. Julien wants to buy a F-1 car but he needs to ask Yip Ling, our resident "loan shark", for money. Charles arrives -- begging for laps from Sean. Henry is not far behind him after an evening's preparation to replace Mario Lemieux. Marktin continues the check-in and notices that Eric W. is already asleep at his desk. Matthieu has not returned from play practice, yet. Steve P., Han, and Dennis are trying to find something other than "Big Bucks" to play. "Tuck opening!", Torrance is first in line. Sometimes excitement comes on Sunday afternoon: the "flood" is always memorable to the Chapman Boys.

Gillard House

'Twas the night before break, when all through the house all the creatures were stirring, except for Toobi who was still in his barrel. Bags were packed and we were ready to go, but first Ms. LeBaron had to check out the show. Amanda and Shelley ate all the food, but Katherine and Sheila were still in a good mood. Melissa wins the fourth form prize, but Amelia likes Californian guys. Then there's Heather and her roommate's not there but fortunately Flora and Chor-Chiet are quite a pair. Liz and Steph play squash at the ritz. Courtney our 'coiffure', and Rachel who runs to the phone in a blitz. Jen J. who wants to go, and Nat hates the snow. Up the stairs we go, where Catherine and Ellen will not shut up, while Laura and Pippa are obsessed with their cup. Gan and Marcia tried to move but Melanie and Michelle did not approve. Meanwhile, Rhea adds a little SPARK to the dry, brittle, X'mas tree bark. Clodagh became addicted to PEPSI. Heather and Ellena are always spacey. Mario-Helene and all her boys, Sophie and her electric toys. Tracey uses 3 cans of hairspray, and Sandy is Now Kids crazy. Moon bounces around on tiny feet, past Conney's room that's much too neat. Asuka our great hockey player, and Linda must hide cause we never see her. Into our cozy annex we come. Helen the imported peasant, who's just so pleasant. Tanya who has no room to lie, and Kristine's bed is just too high. Sara stays up afraid of feet, and Jon will ask "what's to eat". Micholynn's on the phone with you know who, while Julia dreams of Blue. Smeets and Smeets have nice tans. Kristin and Erin will always use cans. The children get nestled all snug in their beds while visions of sugarplums dance in their heads. And we heard him exclaim as he drove out of sight, "Merry Christmas to all, and to all a goodnight". Except for Toobi 'cause he just woke up.

Ross House Boys

What happen when a bunch of partying hicks from such illustrious places as Lennoxville, Sherbrooke and North Hatley get together at BCS Ross House. While other houses chant intricate cheers extolling their house pride at times like Carnival we pray to the ghosts of modern Canadian heroes, the Mackenzie brothers for guidance. Headed by the wise Goodwins, Ross boys have endeavoured to lighten up this school with their sprint and jocularly. Along with the perennial partyers, the tow Nicks, Dan, Geats and Phil we joined by the fresh faces of Ian Henderson and the next french style idol-Francois Gregoire, from Greg Jones to Peter Cassar we have come together to form the vital backbone of this institution. We come together at the house parties and the inter house athletic events and our true sprints really shows. Despite all the fun we are having we still get our work done as we have more than our shape on the Headmaster's list. Basically, we're the best!

Ross House Girls

Mary, Mary, quite contrary,
 How does your garden grow?
 Full of little girls with their hair in curls and great spirits all aglow.
 Arriving at Bishops College School,
 Rain, hail, wind or snow.
 We live at home but on campus we roam,
 throughout the day until we go.
 With birthday cake each and every break,
 the birthday girl, the candles she does blow.
 Don't make a fuss, remember us,
 and we will see you tomorrow.
 Mary, Mary, quite contrary, this is how your garden grows.

Love the five sunflowers - (the rulers of the garden)

The round square conference

The Round Square Conference is an international confederation of schools sharing a number of ideals and attitudes, and having a common view of education as being vitally concerned with the development of the whole person.

Since 1966 international membership has increased, presenting opportunities for exchanges, projects abroad and international understanding.

It follows that, while most of the member schools are highly individualistic in terms of their origins, traditions, techniques and environment, they nevertheless find much common ground, particularly in their approach to concepts like service to the community, adventurous activities calling for initiative and responsibility, and the furthering of international co-operation. It is also interesting to note how well the students relate in their discussions on spiritual and aesthetic values.

The Conference, which a different school hosts each year to mixed delegations of Heads, Staff, Pupils and governors, provides an annual forum for the exchange of experiences and views, and for the initiation and development of projects.

B.C.S. will be hosting the 1992 Round Square Conference.

INSPECTION '91

A black and white portrait of a young man with dark, wavy hair, smiling. He is wearing a dark suit jacket, a white shirt, and a striped tie. The background is a light, textured gray.

Yo Peeper; got anymore quarters for the booth? Dig deep now, not to deep, save $5 for your private dancer, but next time don't desert us! Ian, phone! Oh surprise its Kristin. On your boogie box lad, show us your steps. See ya in Toronto where you get value for your $5! We wish you the best guarding from your "Tower of Love" this summer, but be sure to leave some fish in the sea for us!

I think it would be wise to always carry a raincoat in case of severe flooding. Sweet, you cannot deny that you are a perverse pig, (house) or that you are rotting inside. A family pack of Gas-X is definitely in order. Don't ever think that I only love you for your piano-playing technique, although it was a great crease. Please believe me when I say I'm waiting for turquoise water, white sand, a beautiful boat and six years to pass by quickly. Get into a good university though, because that boat is going to cost you. I have no doubts. I love you. (How much? An infinite amount)

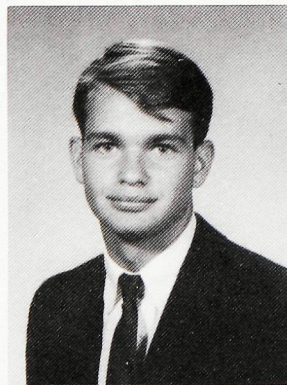

A black and white portrait of a young man with dark, wavy hair, wearing a dark suit jacket, white shirt, and dark tie. He is looking slightly to the left of the camera with a neutral expression. The background is a light, textured gray.

I REMEMBER.
My existence here at B.C.S. has ended.
Many a party will be remembered,
Pub night will never be forgotten.
The soccer and rugby trophies were icing on the cake.

I had it all here at B.C.S.
There was nothing more I could have wanted out of it.
Credit is due to the staff and certain people who made my life more exciting here.
They were the ones who made feel like I was somebody, like I was good for something.

"Mister, if you drive through here
I will not be impressed by the car you steer.
Mister, if you come back now with your lovers' roses and your city know-how.
'Cause right now my head's blowin' with Bitter words and broken poems."
Written by a friend of mine, summer of '89. Think about it.

P.S. I thank you, Josee.

Dan Dekee The Man, Ya right! He wishes. However, on a basketball court, he could do as much as Jordan can . . . only if J.B. is there to support him. The best known quarterback in history, #7 from B.C.S. Dan "The Key" The Man but only if . . . whatever. Also, don't play tennis too often with your left hand if you want to stay at B.C.S. Best wishes to you in the future from your friends at Bishop's, H!Ha!

A black and white portrait of a young man with dark, wavy hair, smiling broadly. He is wearing a dark suit jacket, a white collared shirt, and a dark necktie. The background is a light, textured gray.

When La Rock came to B.C.S. in La Pony without La Transmission, he got well known as La Capt'n Quebec. Many stories about Les girlfriends but we never see them, La Liar! In La rugby trip to La U.K., he met La goddess, Debbie, and she bought him La Bitter and he gave her La present in exchange. And La present was La Donut.

JOSEE DUFRESNE

No way Hosee, I mean Josee! How are LES WEEK-ENDS? Get burned much by Romo? (ie "Good morning ladies and gentlemen, you too Josee . . .") Eat any peanuts lately or are you waiting till you die? Eating seconds in pizza and surviving. Hiking from Williams everyday with her trusty asthma pump. Riding up in the gondola for mountain day. No cross country run in Nov. Walking the laps during crease . . . feeling lazy? Nah! How can you stay so slim? We love you, ya nerd! We miss you already!

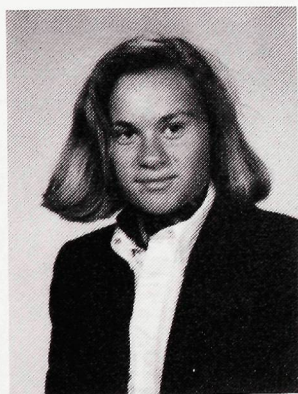

K.M., T.P.

VALERIA ENRICH

Mama mia, pero que catzo volo. Bacteria, the ***pausic, nymphomaniac always going to extremes to get people's attention. Her French is "fantastique" and her love for frogs is intimate. "L'amour!" It's great, NO? (V.E. + M.L.) She's a great basketball player but a little on the rough side. (Presented with the Basket of the Year Award for 1991). She's serious enough to be a bouncer, but funny enough to make anyone laugh.

We love you,
PICHONAS

MICHELLE EVANGELISTA

Spending the weekend here? Have you taken any trips to the woods with Mr. S. lately? Or are you too busy trying to track Marco down on his cellular phone? Remember: Cookie. Carrot cake at "Cap Vert." "Stress" computers. Dream of Rhonobwy. Did Arthur really exist!? Boring sociology with Romo. Cappuccino at "Chrysantheme." The pumpkin at "Red Lobster." Madhouse. Certain fortunes. Decisions, Decisions . . . Surviving at B.C.S.: Stay up a little later and work a little harder. One day K.S., G.S. & K.M. will go to Hippopotamus. Good luck guys and let's keep in touch.

SALLY GOODWIN

I want to hold your hand!! Spring and May break 1990. Three man, Kiddiddle, the great escape in Mtl. Thanks for the car rides. Sal, don't you ever change for anybody. I never forget best friends, you better not!! - Mich. There were times when we were unsure what to do. Was this because of our morals, or our desires! Who knows, I suppose what ever happened just happened. But, with these few words I would just like you to know that you will always have a special place within my heart!!! - Yusef.

ADAM GOTTDENKER

Dinker,
One day you will grow up to be an aspiring IHA hockey player and don't worry your life does not reflect your inability to score on an open net. Three years at B.C.S. from football to gymnastics, Adam's tried it all. Never forget all the wonderful advice we've given you. We'll miss you.

Greg and Laura

SARA HALTINER

Good luck and best wishes in the future from all your friends at B.C.S.

ASTRID HOOGLIET

Met ca là face de pête. Grosse p***e. Determined to see a Canadian Moose and to rip-off Glass House for her personal benefits. (Capitalist Pig). She "came" in physics class unwillingly and learnt about "NEWTONS". (Very crude). Her attraction to Gino's is doubtful, (probably because of their car). Always look on the bright side of life,

PICHONSITAS

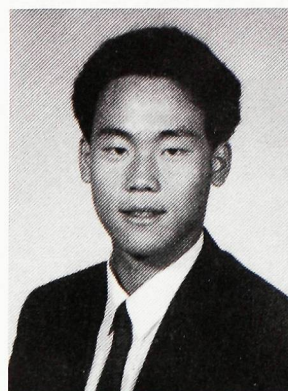

P.S. Greetings from Center Stairs!

ROBIN HURRLE

This is going to be my third year here at B.C.S. and in those three years a lot of good and bad things has happened to me. But two things seem to stand out more than the others. One is the players' club which let me do the thing I love the most, carpentry, and I thank Mr. Evans.

The other thing came to me just this year in the form of a new student from Barbados. She's probably the best thing that could ever have happen to me, and without her I don't know were I would be today. Thanks for everything Vanessa.

ANDY LAI

Moose Lai
Mr. HEART BREAKER!! Do you ever make mistakes? Did you get another 100% on your test? You are always perfect and you know everything. You are also kind enough to help others. Of course, I know you work very hard to get perfect score. You're very nice person, Moose. But don't forget, DON'T EVER, EVER BREAK A GIRL'S HEART!! if you want to know my "marriage" story happened last year, 1989.

Best of Luck!!

Dr. Liquid Maeno B. Sc.

EWAN LILFORD

"I'm running out of time I'm out of step and closing down and never sleep for wanting hours the empty hours of greed and uselessly always the need to feel again the real belief of something more than mockery if only I could fill my heart with love". THE CURE
"... this position I've held it pays my way, but it corrodes my soul, I want to leave, you will not miss me ..."

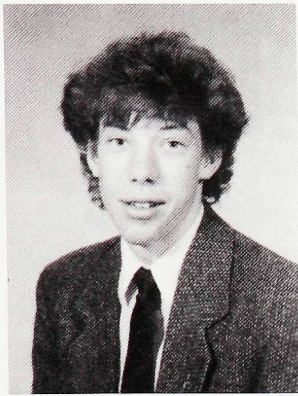

THE SMITHS

This last quote is dedicated to those who cared.

"I've been looking so long at these pictures of you that I almost believe that they're real I've been looking so long with my pictures of you that I almost believe that the pictures are all I can feel".

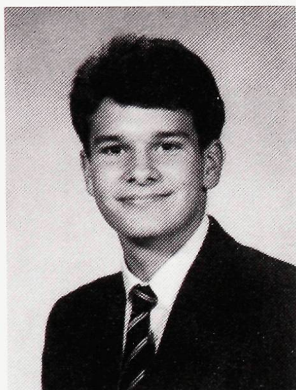

Robert Smith

goes to the "L"ed "R"ion? (I wonder where that is!!) I thought
You had an "op . . . tion" on your

ERIN MORAN

Our dearest Twrch Twyrth. Hi! How are you? Where are you now? Erin the skier. I've always wanted to try this! A damn savage. He had potential. The dog's portrait. Thanks for nothing, Imp! Cradle robber, you baby thief, you. Welcome to the Golden Phes . . . Take that back about pidadells. Afewfewfew! A true disciple of Hell you are! Frustrated much? Gee, you've lost weight! Do you want or do you not want? Endless summer nights. Ouch outside Peel. Praise spaghetti and gas masks. Chocolate, the substitute. P.M.S. the #1 excuse. You will never quit! Love, US!

YUSEF MORANT-WADE

Hi Dad, yes I've cleaned my teeth and even polished my shoes as well, and if you're interested I've arranged the toothbrushes in alphabetical order. That body beautiful won't be scarred by a brew or two. When are you going to grow that box, you cucumber! You're more likely to catch something from your shaving cream than a peep show. O.K. sport-star, its' off to the gym for you, to work off that . . . ! Lizard!

Oz, Scot & Peeper.

MARC-DAVID MUNK

It seems that it was yesterday when I looked up at the graduating class of 85-86, and commented about how it seemed like five-hundred years would have to pass before I finally left high school. Strangely enough, the time has passed like a blur and here I am. Thanks are due to everyone at home (especially Nanna and Poppa), as well as those at school who take the time to make B.C.S. more than a job. Names such as Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mr. J., Rev. Peacock and Mr. Mortimer stick-out, but there are others, they know who they are. As well, my good friends (especially Robin) deserve a big how-how for surviving my various eccentricities. Adios B.C.S. I'll send a post-card.

HELEN OWEN

Dear our sweet, short, imported English peasant,
So how did you sleep the night of the earthquake? Or did someone flip you? Stressed?! Worried?! Not our Pez! Why should she be with two classes a day? Sure you worked back in England!!! We believe you! (snort, cough, Ha!) I take it you don't like our cafeteria food, since you supported Village Grek all by yourself. If you say you're sorry one more time I'm going to scream. We are glad you came and are going to miss you.

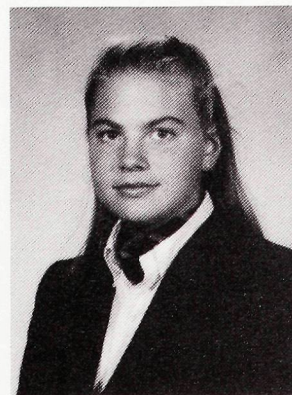

K.M., T.P.

TANYA PASH

Do you always start off the year the same way? Annex fire drill, didn't know you could fly! Where's our laundry? Feel like trying to flip Helen again? So Tanya, are you going out with your cousins? So much for the "No Disturb" sign. However the "Beware of Dog" sign was appropriate. Caught the Water Addiction? Eat any Lipton Pea soup lately? I know you want to. So, I hear we're a big hockey player now. Learned how to stop yet? Don't worry there's always the boards. I'll always remember LES WEEKENDS. Have a great time at community college! (joke)

J.D., K.M.

MICHELYNN POIRIER

Three men and a babe. Oops! We're all going to Dallas, or to BU for that matter. We know you "arrived", but where did you go? The peanut butter and jam van. L'Esprit, I have at Peel Pub. Have what?? Michelynn, where are you? The midnight alarm. - The Annex. Chlynnie! Car ride? Hammer fest and the summer of 1990. - Sal. Endless love, Chuck & Gert, the Pier, #34, almost a year . . . I will always care a lot about you. Love, Dave W.

JULIA RALPH

February break with hairy bum. Hands up for Vincent! Do you wanna dance? Julia and the french connection. Hey, Barbara the spoon and Tom the fork got back together! Julia, where are you? Did you ever find your ring in the ocean? B.V.I's and Against all odds, ohh Blue. Biff what was that noise? Wrong Duncan! The midnight alarm. Michelynn, there were spaghetti strings over my bed! Sara, how many days now?

Love,
the Annex

NICHOLAS SCHEIB

For all of the experiences I have had here, I would like to thank my parents. You have made this all possible and I am deeply grateful. To my friends along the way, thanks for the great trip. You say the hill's too steep to climb I'd like to try
You pick the place and I'll choose the time
And I'll climb the hill in my own way.

And that is the path with heart.

ALEXANDER SECCOMBE-HETT

The older and not much wiser half of the Piper Poses is leaving us with a good trail of disasters in his path (Chapman Path that is.) I wonder why they suspected you of anything? Was it the attitude . . . What's wrong with his attitude anyway? Well, the drug testing didn't seem to hurt the deadly duo (It came out negative, honest!) The Piper Posse may be separated for a while; But SFU is the next target.

ADRIAN ABDOO

From the deepest, darkest jungle of the library, there he sat, with a protruding lower lip. He pulls out a piece of paper and begins to hunt down the T.O.D. . He hasn't left campus in weeks, and spends his time in the rink, sweeping, shoveling, and cleaning the locker room. ABDOO, coming to a CEGEP near you. (We hope).

Good luck and remember "Imagination is more important than knowledge."

CAROLINE BLAIS

Who's this girl? You have probably met her in hallway with her big smile and her long brown hair which she never likes. She often seems to be lost, especially when she is on her way to the wrong class. You may excuse her because she is from Val D'or. She always tries to be on a diet, but M & M are her downfall. Don't worry Caro, you're not fat!!! Good luck for the future! Don't be too frustrated in life! We will miss you!!!

"So this is it," said Arthur, "we are going to die."
"Yes," said Ford, "except . . . no! Wait a minute!" He suddenly lunged across the chamber at something behind Arthur's line of vision. "What's this switch?" he cried.
"What? Where? cried Arthur twisting around.
"No, I was only fooling," said Ford, "we are going to die after all."

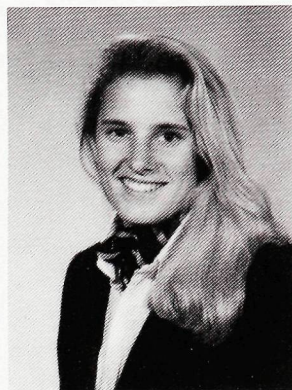

Well Boo,
It's been different. Let's hope it stays that way. Time it was, wasn't it?

JOSHUA CUNDILL

Jesuit, a rich B.C. Ser. a King living in a chateau de S . . . , who redefined the word Cheesyness. Introduced to Venus fly trap, munched on V-llage grec, and soon gave it up because it was V-ile. PULLing flips here and there he would suddenly disappear. COKE, Puke, Jean Coutu, Josh nollified him. Athletic Prowess Worm! You never did get a table dancer, did you. Well hopefully we'll be able to meet again in the deepest, darkest, most superior corner of the studio. See ya Rookie.

CLAYTON DEMERS

M.C. - Clay-T. You got a new doo, what did your barber do? He played a mean trick on you. Not half as bad as what you left in the dinning hall on Saturday evening. But hey, it was worth the 50 hours. The sound effects engineer, who gave us free stereo sound when we watched t.v. will be missed. Flipping a hopless Denis with a wig and nylon stockings will be one of your finer memories of this fine institution. Math nerd, when will you clean the s-t off your nose.

The JESUIT, HACK, ABJEW, F.B.I.
P.S. Live life, taste death, and get busted!

ADAM DEVITA

Who am I, where am I, What am I doing here? Wednesday the 16. OATMEAL.

DAVID DUBE

David Dube is the whiz kid of the school. He doesn't talk a lot, but when he speaks it is for a good cause. Don't ask him stupid questions, because he won't answer. David studies a lot and he has good marks. But David has not always been a good boy. We remember when he was always late for New Student Lines. All the year, David has shown all around a beautiful picture of a girl called Karine from Amos (the nicest city of the world . . . ) to everybody! David, we are very happy to know you! Keep smiling!!!

D. et C.

CHRISTIE DUNKLEY

Jingle Bells! Hi ho hi ho, it's off to s__e we go! So, do you love J.P., M.P., or P.P.? Oh, P.P., isn't that convenient? And about that weekend with Nora, when are they going to fix the jukebox? Junkanoo Fever Forever! Oh, Mrs. Peacock, North Hatley is so nice, I've never seen it before! (at least not sober!) In the morning, and in math class you will be forever known as Mrs. Cheer! My favourite roomie, you must remember the windows were not meant to hold us 'big girls' and often, neither were the trees! We will still have things to talk about when we're old and wrinkled on P.I Beach sipping Ting. Keep your head up, your heart big and remember the black rainbow. It's not that the colours aren't there it's just imagination they lack. "I'd trade off my tomorrow for a single yes...terday."

Love,

NICK ELLIS

Yes my son, 5 years in this h... hole and what do we have to show for it. Well not much except some damn good partying! We were once 4 and now down to 2. The K.K.Q. members are dropping like flies. Almost down to one, but they can never separate us all. Long live Blackpoint and the other unknown, but unforgettable party places. Nick, the man that has been well acquainted with most of the girls of the Galt graduating class. K.K.Q. 12

PATRICK FORTIER

A little boy, who at the beginning of school had no friends (and probably still doesn't have any). Who slowly grew through his five full years of B.C.S. life, but who still hasn't fully caught up with the rest of us. As someone once called him Tit Pat Inc. I will miss the little accidents such as the ink problem or maybe Mr. Goodwin annoying him about the length of his hair or the amount of noise in the common room. Pat will always be remembered as the kid who came, who saw and who destroyed.

DAVID FORTIN

No one gets cut from cross country but David is the only person who can manage to miss the bus every desertion run. After cross country running, he tried football but it wasn't his thing either! Although he never lost his smile and curiosity... There's never anything he doesn't want to know. David also able to miss one week of school by saying that he had a little flu. While everyone at school was studying, he was watching T.V. and reading Steven King books. Despite his little faults, he likes to help people. He's a good person. He's David Fortin!!! Good luck in the future! We know you will be the best!

Your friends!

DAVE GIRARDIN

B.C.S. Tankards are also awarded to the following who have given exceptional service to the School:

- A BCS Tankard is awarded this year to Sally Goodwin for her consistent and positive commitment to BCS. In her six years here she has participated, with enthusiasm, in all aspects of school life. She has regularly earned colours in her creases, and has enjoyed working on the Carnival Committee and in the Players' Club - both behind and on the stage. She represented the school well as an exchange student at Box Hill, and at the Round Square Conference. In this her final year, she has been a Prefect, Head of Choir, Commanding Officer of the BCS Cadet Corps, and a participant in the Round Square Project in Kenya. Congratulations, Sally.

- A BCS Tankard is awarded this year to Robin Hurrle. Since Robin's arrival at BCS in September 1988, he has demonstrated a work and leadership ethic that is second to none.

In the drama department his wizardry and expertise in carpentry and building have made him the backbone of the technical aspect of numerous school productions. His leadership in running the supply section of the Cadet Corps and in the running of McNaughton House have been exceptional.

Robin has been an example to all.

- A BCS Tankard is awarded this year to Andy Lai.

When someone mentions this young man's name, some people think of academic success, quiet leadership, math awards, scholarship offers, and an acceptance to Harvard University. Others picture prefecture, senior football, senior basketball, singing bass, the stage, and the yearbook. His houseparent for one, thinks of ready support, respect and involvement. Teaching is what this young man does when he holds court with the junior boys, or when students arrive on a daily basis to ask for tutoring. Everything he does, he does without fanfare or a need for recognition.

Due to the positive example he constantly gives his peers, the respect he receives from others, and his involvement in the School, Andy Lai is very deserving of this Tankard.

- A BCS Tankard is awarded this year to Marc-David Munk. Marc's outstanding contribution to the school takes many shapes. From his leadership as a Cadet Captain, to his consistent support of the Shoebox Campaign; from his work in the Players' Club - both on and off stage - to his instigation of the paper recycling program; from his concern and efforts on the pioneering crease, to his complete reliability as a Prefect, Marc has made an outstanding contribution.

But more than that, Marc has shown integrity, honesty, maturity, and a strength of character second to none.

THE HARTLAND B. MACDOUGALL MEDAL

Given by the MacDougall Family in memory of Hartland B. MacDougall, B.C.S., 1889-1894.

The Morning Trek from Chapman House

6:45 am, BEEP! BEEP! Your digital alarm rings. Your eyes sag.
Your stomach growls. You know its time for school.

As you look out the window the trees howl Driven by icy winds
The long walk to school begins.

The glare of sunlight reflecting off the white snow making your eyes wince and tear,
Your moist warm face feeling the brisk winter air, Hearing and feeling the cracking as the air freezes the mucus in your nostrils.

The journey continues up the slippery unplowed path,
Frustration sets in as the deep snow slows your movement and fills your boots,
Your ears numb and redden as the relentless winds cut across the open field of the cemetery.

Your pace quickens as the school is in sight,
You trespass across the forbidden ski trail willing to accept the punishment of law, but not the cold.

The icy schoolhouse stairs try to throw you down, but you don't give up.

Finally you are there, and only the heavy oak doors
keep you from the warmth of center stairs.

Once in the door your nose starts to run,
The frozen tears on your eyes begin to defrost,
Ears thawing out, you make your way to the dining hall,
Stopping at the cloisters you take off your frosty coat,
Revealing your stylish BCS blazer.

Your stomach is empty, you are starving, until you see the food.

All that walk for nothing again!!!

C.S.M.
